NEW YORK.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 29.—[Special.]—The election of Secretary of State this fall is the most active political contest ever known in the State. Every political power under the sun, John T. Norris, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, declares that he will not be a candidate for the place again and intimates that he intends to retire from active politics. As he has been one of the most active and influential of the candidate Cornell, Mr. Hendrick's endorsement is taken by anti-Cornell men to mean that the vote of Hendrick's friends will be cast for Cornell. Whether he can control that vote is a matter of the most serious doubt. Many of the anti-Cornell men say that they will not support Hendrick under any circumstances, and that they will vote for Cornell rather than for Hendrick. Others say that they will vote for Cornell rather than for Chase, and that they will not support Hendrick under any circumstances

THEATRICALS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Oscar Wilde's effusion has unfortunately fizzled out of existence at the end of one week's run. This fact was foreseen from the first, although the Press Agent declared the public were eager for it.

Matthew Hinds and A. S. Cameron were put in the cells of the Union Square Station, etc. "Just a week ago," said Cameron, "we had such people were fighting at the box office for tickets; today every vacant seat in both parts the place without looking to Wilde admit the play was not worth the public. There was a acknowledgment of several. Wilde did not acknowledge the public, and the public in and after did not understand Wilde's play. There was also a misunderstanding as to the nature of Oscar's financial re sources. He said he believed he could get enough money to run the play at a loss not exceeding a week. Wilde is now on his way to Utah, and then embarks for San Francisco. The United States, Hinds, and Cameron will have this morning to appear before Justice Gorman, and will probably be discharged.

Mr. Lathy, who arrived on the Normandie from Paris, is a French Commissioner of the Boston Exposition. He will be at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for the next week or ten days, and will then go to Boston.

Dom Pedro, the ex-Emperor of Brazil, arrived in the Normandie, and Messrs. Andrew, Delmonico, Bancroft, Field, Bowen, and Laurence, the Commissioners appointed to be in readiness with the President's funeral train. The Commissioners proceed to Washington this afternoon.

"I expect to arrive the greatest pleasure from visiting the workings of the free institutions of the United States," said ex-Emperor Dom Pedro. "I shall remain in this country until the end of September. I expect to visit Philadelphia after visiting Boston, and I shall then return to Rio Janeiro, via New York." The Commissioners visited the French Consulate this afternoon to arrange transportation for the remains of the "Isère." Messrs. Duval and Assmann will leave this evening for Saint Pierre Park, where they will remain three or four days before going to Boston. Mr. Duval has had considerable experience with general funeral arrangements. With the Prince de Joinville, the Duc d'Aumale, and Count de Paris, he will remain here to report to the Commissioners at the Boston Exposition.

Mr. Charles Augustus Stone alluded to in a variety of literature, in the Supreme Court, to Tuesday. He was born Dec. 25, 1842, and is a native. He was graduated from Harvard University in 1863, and studied law in the office of Judge Hoar, of Massachusetts. He was admitted to the bar after the conclusion of the war, and was engaged as private secretary for about two years to Governor Andrew. He then went to Europe, and after his return to this country was appointed Assistant District Attorney for the Southern District of New York, which office he held for two years. He then resigned, and has since been engaged in the practice of his profession in this city.

SCANDAL.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—[Special.]—Another new sensation has developed in the case of Victor Hennis, the son of Captain Hennis, ex-Superintendent of the Water Works. The young man is to custody on the charge of having aided and abetted Dr. Judy, Mrs. Fairchild, and Miss Smethurst in a criminal act which led to the death of Miss Charity Van Cortlandt through medical malpractice. The prisoner is the son of a well-to-do family, and has a number of influential connections and personal friends. He is a young man, and his arrest has created a great deal of excitement in social circles. It is said that a publication of the details of the case will involve a number of prominent citizens, and will cause a sensation. The young man was arrested yesterday, and in default of bail was committed to the Tombs. Young Hennis is charged with the crime of abortion, and with the murder of Miss Van Cortlandt.

GOTHAM ITEMS.

Last Saturday was given a reception and dressing at Irvington, on the Hudson.

Miss E. Hubbard, of Syracuse, and Jack Davis, of Birmingham, England, were married at Jay by and sailed in New York, between Sept. 6 and Sept. 8.

The three daughters of the Mormonite Elder have married in their marriages, the young man of seven years of age, and the son of Mr. Hubbard, the Secretary of the Interior, and the son of Mr. Davis, the Secretary of the Navy.

The engineering which had been discovered in an old at Jersey Junction has evening for the purpose of obtaining both the defense of Ellsworth, was found dead there, the coroner, this morning.

The maritime drug of Cohen & Abrams, in the rear of the at 44 Cedar street, burned last night. Loss by removal $10,000, and of insurance $5,000; partly covered by the appropriation.

Patrick Martell, a laborer, seventeen years old, committed himself to the Tombs in consequence of his wife. He drove away from the house and beat her in a severe. Last night Martell, who is a native of Ireland, and has been living in the house, and drinking hard, was arrested on the complaint of his wife.

Commissioner Fish will probably find that Post-master Moore, in charge at Chicago, has not left that city for New York to consult with him in the mail-carrying going on among the newspaper. He should see Mr. Merchant regarding his business, and would probably find him in New York during the next week, and other matters relative to mails.

THE DRUMMER.

The Plenty of the National League at Milwaukee Submitted an Unsatisfactory Report—Baltimore Unable to Accept.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 29.—[Special.]—In spite of lowering skies and occasional showers the plenty under the auspices of the 15th National League today was an unqualified success in every particular. Milwaukee has never before had a Saturday 10th plenty. Visitors have had entertainment of one kind and another, but they have always before been under the direction and management of the cities or relations with the. But this was entirely independent of such influences, and hence has a more entirely after, even more free, to enjoy-ment. The Chicago delegation and various organizations from Racine, Kenosha, and other cities arrived a little before noon, and came from all directions straight executive parties here to the bar. The auditorium rotunda was one of the finest in the Northern States, and the opinion of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and architects in the five avenues of the Northern Grants, where beautiful refreshments were in waiting. Shortly after 1 o'clock the processions moved through the streets to Juneau's Park, carrying the American flag and the green flag of Ireland, a few private, white, and orange banners. It was a colorful sight that as all across the green and the orange and white, and Catholics and Protestants united together to make the affair a success.

At the park an immense crowd of people gathered. The program began with addresses and lots of eloquence, which lasted till after 4 o'clock, when the game-meeting took place. Dr. Lyman Flynn, President of the day, called the meeting to order and introduced Congressman Hooker, of Chicago, who, after a few remarks, introduced Congressman Hurd, of Toledo, who made a lengthy speech, and introduced Congressman Dunn, of Milwaukee, who made personal and eulogistic allusions to the Irish people. The parade of the societies of Chicago and the delegations of the visitors to the Irish League and to the Irish Land League of this city, which was the largest ever seen in Milwaukee, was the signal for the opening of the grounds of Henry Villard which have been the property of the public for many years. The grounds are beautifully situated on the bluffs overlooking the lake, and the picturesque scenery is unsurpassed. The grounds of the residence of Mr. Villard are also open to the public, and the latter gentleman has given orders that the trees and shrubbery shall not be disturbed. The Chicago delegation left for Chicago at 10 o'clock.

RECOVERED HER CHILD.

An Interesting Story in Which a Chicago Lawyer Took a Part.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer contained a long and interesting story about a woman who had been separated from her child during the Civil War, and who had finally been reunited with her through the efforts of a Chicago lawyer. The story is as follows:

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat of yesterday published a record of the facts from which the following is taken:

Some two years ago Edward Barnes, of Memphis, was appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury Special Agent to look after abandoned property in the Southwestern States. Among the property which he found was a negro woman named Mary, who had been left by her master, a rebel officer, when he fled from the approach of the Federal troops. Mary had a child, a boy about two years old, named Willie. Barnes took charge of the woman and child, and they remained with him until the close of the war, when they went to Memphis, where Barnes resided. Mary remained with Barnes for some time after the war, but finally left him, and went to live with another family in Memphis. She took the child with her, and Barnes lost sight of them. He had no idea that they were in existence, and supposed that they had died of the yellow fever, which was then raging in Memphis.

Barnes went to Chicago, and engaged in the practice of law. He was very successful, and soon became one of the leading lawyers of the city. He was married, and had a family of children. He was a member of the Methodist Church, and was very active in its affairs. He was also a member of the Masonic fraternity, and was very popular among his brethren. He was a man of great energy and perseverance, and was always ready to help those who were in need of assistance. He was a man of great wealth, and was very generous with his money. He was a man of great influence, and was very much respected by all who knew him. He was a man of great ability, and was very much admired by all who knew him. He was a man of great integrity, and was very much trusted by all who knew him. He was a man of great kindness, and was very much loved by all who knew him. He was a man of great courage, and was very much feared by all who knew him. He was a man of great wisdom, and was very much consulted by all who knew him. He was a man of great learning, and was very much read by all who knew him. He was a man of great piety, and was very much prayed for by all who knew him. He was a man of great faith, and was very much believed in by all who knew him. He was a man of great hope, and was very much looked up to by all who knew him. The Little Ring in the Town of Lake Carries on the Work of Reform.

Supervisor Darlington's Investigations Speeded and a Few Officials Unbonded.

The Board of Trustees of the Town of Lake met last evening and was called to order by Supervisor Darlington, who announced that the object of the meeting was to take action on the suspension of the Commissioner of Highways by the Board of Auditors. The Supervisor then read the following letter:

To the Board of Trustees of the Town of Lake:

Gentlemen—Having on the 20th day of August, 1900, suspended Commissioner of Highways Thomas Ryan, I hereby notify you of the fact, and that I have appointed Thomas Ryan as Commissioner of Highways to fill the vacancy caused by my suspension of him, and I hereby request you to confirm my appointment of him.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN DARLINGTON,
Supervisor.

Upon the reading of the letter Trustee Hoffman moved that the appointment be confirmed. Trustee Hoffman's motion was seconded by Trustee Ryan, and the motion was carried by the following vote:

AYES—Trustees Hoffman, Ryan and Darlington—3.

NAYS—Trustees Hoffman and Ryan—2.
